VERSE 1 - SIGNED Winter snow is drifting down From a dark and starlit sky Winter snow falls silently Over hills and mountains high	Winter snow falls silently Over hills and mountains high
Frosty breezes blow through the trees Branches whisper soft and low Footprints covered and secrets kept Beneath the winter snow.	Frosty breezes blow through the trees Branches whisper soft and low Footprints covered and secrets kept Beneath the winter snow.
Verse 2 - SIGNED Little child what brings you here So far away from home? Clinging to your mother's side For the miles you had to roam	Clinging to your mother's side For the miles you had to roam
Come inside and put down your load Warm your frozen hands and toes Leave your worries behind you now Beneath the winter snow	Come inside and put down your load Warm your frozen hands and toes Leave your worries behind you now Beneath the winter snow
Verse 3 - SIGNED Winter snow is bleak and cold But its beauty is undone Spring comes in to breathe new life With the warmth of the glowing sun	Spring comes in to breathe new life With the warmth of the glowing sun
Hope will blossom for all to see Kindness making our hearts glow Troubles only a memory Beneath the winter snow.	Hope will blossom for all to see Kindness making our hearts glow Troubles only a memory Beneath the winter snow.
